

My family listens to K-LOVE, being a local station and a great service that has family oriented programming without the sometimes sexual innuendos of other stations. This local area has great moral character and the possible displacement by an LPFM broadcaster would be detrimental to the people of my neighborhood. Many people have expressed, and myself, how a moral and uplifting radio station is welcomed and needed for the children, teens and adults of our community.